LUSITANIA SUNK BY TORPEDO

1300 ABOARD; ALL RESCUED

NOTED FOLK ON CABIN LIST

Passengers Aboard the Great Liner Include Noted Persons

Several Oakland Names Appear on Roll of Ship

LONDON, May 7, 5:55 p. m.—A dispatch from Liverpool to the Exchange Telegraph Company says it is not known how many of the Lusitania's passengers were saved.

Three of the passengers on the Lusitania were J. P. Gray, a Forty-first street; his daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Gray, and her five-year-old son, Stewart. The three left Oakland just a week ago today, and were bound for Edinburgh, Scotland, where Mrs. J. P. Gray is with her mother, Mrs. Myra Beach.

Gray's son, William Gray, is in New York City. Business engagements prevented him from accompanying his father, wife and boy on the European trip. Mrs. Gray and her mother have been in Edinburgh for the past several months, visiting another daughter of Gray's, who is the wife of a prominent Englishman, a major in the British army, and now at the front in Flanders.

Mrs. Gray and her aged mother were to have returned in a short time with Gray, their daughter-in-law and their grandchild. Her mother, the father of Mrs. J. P. Gray, is at the Gray residence, in Forty-first street. He is 85 years of age and ill. The news of the torpedoing and sinking of the big liner has not been told to him. He received a letter from his daughter, Mrs. J. P. Gray, yesterday, announcing that Mrs. Beach and herself could not return home as they had expected, because of the serious illness of Mrs. Beach.

CITIZENS PROTEST AGAINST DAVIE-ISM

Monster Rally Tonight at Ye Liberty for Bilger Adherents

The apathy with which the electorate viewed the municipal primary three weeks ago has disappeared, and everywhere a vital interest is being taken in the campaign being made for the general election Tuesday. The city has been stirred as never before in a local election, and in every precinct there is promise of a big vote being cast.

A great citizens' army of men and women have organized as precinct workers in behalf of the candidacy of Frank W. Bilger for mayor. A house-to-house canvass is being made, and reports have come to the headquarters of the citizens' committee that there is a growing sentiment throughout the municipality in favor of Bilger.

While interest is being taken in the fight being made by the candidates for council and the school board, the ordinance amendments on the ballot have almost been lost sight of. They have not been discussed at the political meetings, and little interest is being taken in these four referendum propositions.

BILGER COMMENDED.
 It is as a reaction against the tactics pursued by John L. Davie, many times candidate for mayor, that the city-wide protest has been made. Bilger has conducted his campaign in an honorable manner, presenting himself to the voters as a man who has made a success of his private affairs, and who is ready to give his time and energy to the city to put through a constructive program. But in the campaign of invective and abuse that has been launched by Davie and the so-called Committee of One Hundred, the same program of Bilger has almost been forgotten, and the outstanding personality in the campaign has become that of Davie, the denunciator.

The meeting tonight at Ye Liberty playhouse will be in effect a protest against the Davie political tactics. A number of the neighborhood meetings held last night and to be held tonight and tomorrow will voice the same protest.

A section of the theater will be reserved tonight for women and their escorts. The committee in charge is desirous that the mass meeting should be representative in its character, and a cordial welcome will be extended to the women voters.

A circular letter, urging the candidacy of Bilger, was signed today by over 250 businessmen, members of civic, commercial, fraternal and labor organizations. Copies of the letter have been made and are being presented for signatures. It is anticipated that over 1000 names will be added to the letter.

As an indication of the general feeling concerning the candidacy of Bilger and Davie, showing the change in the past few days, wages are now being laid at even money, no odds being offered in favor of Davie.

BILGER GAINING FAVOR.
 The central portion of the city, it is conceded, and the inside residential district, will prove to be strongly pro-

GRAVE CRISIS BEFORE U.S.

BULLETIN.
 WASHINGTON, May 7.—Ambassador Page at London cabled: "Lusitania torpedoed and sunk within thirty minutes. No news of passengers yet."

WASHINGTON, May 7.—President Wilson was informed of the sinking of the Lusitania and White House officials showed keen anxiety to learn whether any American lives were lost. No comment was made.

News of the torpedoing of the Lusitania struck official Washington like a bomb. While disposed to await full details before expressing opinions, all administration officials realized that the incident was probably the most serious Washington has faced since the beginning of the war.

The presence of German submarines off the southern coast of Ireland and along the line of travel the Lusitania would follow in going to Liverpool was made known in a dispatch from Glasgow last night, which recited that the British steamer Cherbury had been torpedoed in the Atlantic ocean off the Irish coast. This was on April 29.

Two other vessels were sent to the bottom more recently, the Centurion and the Candida. Just where these ships were attacked has not been made known, but their destinations

SUBMARINE DESTROYS MAMMOTH LINER NEAR QUEENSTOWN, IRELAND

LONDON, May 7.—The crew and passengers of the Lusitania, sunk by torpedo today, were all saved.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The Cunard liner Lusitania, one of the fastest ships afloat, was torpedoed and sunk this afternoon off the coast of Ireland, ten miles south of Kinsale.

She had aboard 1253 passengers. She sailed from this port last Saturday, May 1, and carried in addition to her own large passenger list 163 passengers transferred to her from the Anchor liner Cameronia.

The news of her sinking was announced by the local office of the Cunard line, and was based on cable advices received from the home office of the company from Liverpool. Three dispatches, received in the order named were made public by the line and read as follows:

"We received from the Land's End wireless station news of repeated distress calls made by the Lusitania asking for assistance immediately. Big list. Position ten miles south of Kinsale. Subsequently received telegram from Queenstown that all available craft in the harbor had been despatched to assist.

Scores of Rescue Boats

The second message to the local office read: "QUEENSTOWN, 4:59 p. m.—About twenty boats of all sorts belonging to our line are in the vicinity where the Lusitania sank. About fifteen other boats are making for the spot to render assistance.

The third cablegram was dated Liverpool and read: "Following received by admiralty: "GALLEY HEAD, 4:25 p. m.—Several boats, apparently survivors, southeast nine miles. Greek steamer proceeding to assist."

Dispatches received here from London, Liverpool and at Queenstown confirmed the news. One of the messages said it was believed that all the big liner's passengers had been saved.

According to a London dispatch put out by the Dow-Jones Ticker at a late hour this afternoon the Cunard Steamship Co. in London issued an official statement there tonight declaring that the Lusitania had been "torpedoed without warning and sank almost immediately."

The text of the statement follows: "The whole concern of the Cunard company is for the safety of the passengers and crew. The material loss does not count, as it is covered by insurance.

Steamers Rush to Scene

"The Lusitania was torpedoed without any warning and sank almost immediately. It is known that a large number of the large boats of the ship are afloat. Every effort is being made to obtain the fullest information, which will be published immediately upon receipt."

When the Lusitania sailed some nervousness had been caused because of the publication in the morning papers of Saturday of an advertisement warning intending travelers that a state of war existed between Germany and Great Britain and her allies, that the war zone includes the waters adjacent to the British Isles; that in addition with the notice given by the German government, vessels flying the flag of the English government are liable to destruction in these waters, and that travelers sailing in the war zone on ships of Great Britain or her allies, do so at their own risk. The advertisement was signed "Imperial German Embassy."

This warning apparently did not cause many cancellations -- for the ship sailed with a very full passenger list. Just before the steam-

By Associated Press.
PARIS, May 7, 12:30 p. m.—The first attack on Constantinople by Russian aviators is reported to have taken place at night. Several bombs were dropped on the city, and it is believed that considerable damage was done.

The Russian aviators were seen in the Black Sea coast, and it is believed that they were operating from a base in the Crimea.

SEA RAID MADE IN IRISH SEA

By Associated Press.
LONDON, May 7, 5:06 p. m.—The British submarine C-20, commanded by Lieutenant Commander G. G. G. G., made a successful sea raid in the Irish Sea yesterday.

The submarine was out on patrol when it sighted a German merchant ship. It followed the ship for some time and then launched a torpedo which struck the ship.

The ship was damaged and was forced to stop. The submarine then fired another torpedo which also struck the ship. The ship was then sunk.

The British steamer Candidate was of 3315 tons register. Built in Glasgow in 1905, she was 335 feet long. She was owned by Liverpool where she arrived April 9 from New Orleans.

SECOND SHIP GOES DOWN.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, May 7, 2:35 p. m.—The British steamer Centurion was torpedoed by a German submarine off the Irish coast yesterday. Her crew was saved.

The Centurion was attacked about the same time that the British steamer Candidate, owned by the same company, was torpedoed off Waterford, Ireland.

The Centurion was bound for South Africa and the Candidate for Jamaica.

The Centurion was 335 feet long and her tonnage was 3354. She was owned in Liverpool.

AUSTRIAN ARTILLERY WINS

By Associated Press.
VENICE, via London, May 7, 5:55 a. m.—Field Marshal Conrad von Hotzendorf, chief of staff of the Austrian army, is credited by the Vienna Reichpost with having made all the strategic preparations for the Austro-German attack in the Carpathians. This operation was carried out so nearly according to program, the paper says, that the Archdukes Frederick and Charles Ferdinand, Baron Conrad and the entire general staff went on a special train to witness the victory they felt certain the Austro-German would win.

Russian airplanes, brigades and divisions melted away under the murderous fire. All the officers of the general staff of one reserve division were killed or wounded. The Russian trenches were stormed by infantry after the terrific bombardment by heavy artillery.

FRENCH TROOPS, BY RUSE, TRICK TURKS

By Associated Press.
PARIS, May 7.—The Official Gazette of the war department published today an account of the landing of French troops in the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles, which confirms previous reports that the purpose of this enterprise was to make a diversion while the main landing force was going ashore on the Gallipoli peninsula.

A regiment of colonial infantry disembarked at Kum Kale on the Asiatic side and attacked a greatly superior force of Turks.

The Official Gazette says the French took 500 prisoners and then retired to their ships, having fulfilled their mission of engaging the attention of the Turks while the main landing operations were being carried out in force on the European side.

SIX KILLED, MANY HURT IN COLLISION

LOS ANGELES, May 7.—Six persons are known to have been killed and a number injured in a collision today between a Pasadena interurban electric car and a freight train on a bridge spanning the Los Angeles river.

THE DEAD.
MRS. H. S. HURLBURN, Los Angeles.
LOUIS LEE COMPTE, Los Angeles.

THE INJURED.
MRS. M. GREENWALD, Pasadena.
MISS TILLIE SCHMIDT, Pasadena.

The freight train struck the electric car squarely in the middle and demolished it. The passengers were scattered about in a wretched mass, over which fell a high-tension wire from which flared and spat deadly tongues of electricity.

The wreckage of the car rested upon the bodies of the dead for more than an hour.

AFLOAT FOR TWENTY MINUTES AFTER SHOCK
By Associated Press.
LONDON, May 7, 6:32 p. m.—Official announcement was made this evening that the Lusitania had remained afloat at least twenty minutes after being torpedoed and that "twenty boats were on the spot at the time."

It is believed that her passengers are safe. No details of how they may be rescued, however, are at hand. One message here says:

"It is not known how many of the Lusitania's passengers were saved."

Relief was immediately sent out from Queenstown. If she floated a reasonable length of time before going down, it is possible that some of the rescuing ships got to her side. It is believed that the Lusitania's water tight heads would tend to keep her afloat.

The Lusitania was sunk by a submarine on board the Lusitania were transferred to her from the steamer Cameronia before she left New York.

The presence of German submarines in the Irish Sea has been indicated by the sinking, during the past few days, of other British vessels off the Irish coast.

It was the Lusitania which last February made use of the American flag. Reports received here say the liner was eight miles off the Irish coast when she went down.

COMPANY REPORT MADE
By Associated Press.
LONDON, May 7, 5:50 p. m.—The manager of the Cunard Company has informed the Liverpool Evening Express that he received this afternoon the following message from the wireless station at Old Head of Kinshasa:

"The Lusitania was sunk by a submarine at 2:33 o'clock this afternoon eight miles south by west off this point."

Is Held Prisoner by Queer Mishap
Accidents happen in the most regulated households, but the accident that happened to J. P. Montgomery, an attorney, with offices in the Bacon block, at his home at 1620 Eighth street, this morning excels in peculiarity the general average.

Mr. Montgomery was raising a window. The frame fell, pinning his hand. He could not get loose himself, so he called for help. Assistance came, but the window refused to budge.

Strenuous efforts to raise it were futile and as a last resort a carpenter had to be summoned and not until he had cut out a part of the sash was the prisoner released.

Mr. Montgomery's injuries were slight.

Walking in Sleep; Discovered by Police

Clad in her night dress and holding a pillow under her head, Mrs. May (Mrs. 2723 Maybelle) was found by the police department early this morning while in a somnambulistic trance. She had been walking for several hours before she was found and awakened at her home. She told the policeman that she frequently walked in her sleep. When discovered the woman and evidently fallen to the ground and her husband, for her sake, had been found. The mishap did not, however, awaken sufficiently to restore her to consciousness.

Other public officials, who have been maligned by Davie and Heney, are expected to reply to the attacks made and to tell the truth as to conditions in Oakland.

To present Frank W. Bilger to the citizens as a clean and efficient business man who has made a success of his life, and concerning whose name there has never been a breath of scandal.

TO ANSWER CALMANT.

Prominent members of the citizens' committee declare that never before in the history of the city has a candidate used methods so discredited upon the entire city with such shameless disregard for truth and the welfare of the community.

Davie, they declare, has noised his charges of dishonesty, graft, vice and general degradation about the city until those unfamiliar with actual conditions in Oakland might believe that it was a typical Mexican center of vice, in which Davie was a typical figure before he immigrated to California.

Every citizen, they declare, knows that vice is not rampant upon the street corners; that Oakland has a remarkably clean record, and that this is an honor to the city. They are anxious to give the lie to the allegations hurled about by Davie and Heney, and to prove that the great mass of the citizens understand the true condition of affairs.

The tirade made by Heney Wednesday night at the Liberty Theater, in which he charged that gambling and prostitution were rampant and notorious and widespread in Oakland has aroused the people to a realization of the dangers that might arise from permitting such a calumny to go unrebuked. Letters calling in question the statements made by Heney and Davie poured into the headquarters of the citizens' committee today, and there was a long line of men and women ready and anxious to give their services in whatever way possible in piling up the mass of refutations of the slanders made against the city.

SENSATIONAL INTEREST.

It is promised by the committee that there will be some sensational sprang at tonight's mass meeting. Episodes in the recent history of Francis J. Heney, that will explain much of his bitterness toward officials of Alameda county and the city of Oakland will be disclosed by Chief Walter J. Petersen.

Stenographic reports of speeches made by Davie in the past few weeks have been made. Peculiar contradictions will be pointed out, and it is promised by the committee that none of the most malignant falsehoods will be nailed to the mast by Petersen and others who will speak. Oaklanders will be told of some of the insulting epithets with which members of the playground commission, the park commission and other public boards have been stigmatized.

It is probable that John McDonald will preside at tonight's meeting. Mrs. Sarah C. Borkland, one of the most prominent and highly respected of Oakland's clubwomen, will speak on behalf of the women's organizations.

John W. Stetson, former state senator, a well-known Progressive, will tell of Bilger's record and his standing in the community. Arthur A. Arlett, head of the Public Welfare League, will give a short talk. George W. Vander Naillen, head of the Alden Library Association and the Municipal Emergency League, and J. B. Osbourne, the blind Socialist orator, will give short addresses.

The vice-presidents who will sit upon the stage are as follows:

DYSPEPSIA OVERCOME

Tone Up the Stomach With Hood's Sarsaparilla.

When you have dyspepsia your life is miserable. You have a bad taste in your mouth, a tenderness at the pit of your stomach, a feeling of puffy fullness, headache, heartburn, and sometimes nausea.

Dyspepsia is difficult digestion—that is what the word means—and the only way to get rid of it is to give vigor and tone to the stomach and the whole digestive system. Hood's Sarsaparilla, sold by all druggists, is the one medicine which acts on the stomach through the blood, and also directly. Its beneficial effects are felt at once. Improvement begins immediately.

Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, makes the rich red blood that is needed for perfect digestion, and builds up the whole system. No other medicine can take its place.—Advertisement.

FARM=ORCHARD=DAIRY

Seed Formation in Citrus Fruits Probed

BERKELEY, May 7.—Studies made at the University of California department of agriculture have resulted in the deduction of many interesting matters regarding the factors influencing the formation of seed in citrus fruits. A planting of semi-tropical fruits at Davis has been carried on now for nearly three years and definite conclusions as to the possibilities of introducing this sort of orchard work into this part of the state are expected shortly.

In the orchard specimens of all varieties of citrus fruits and semi-tropical fruits which Davis climate permits have been included in the planting to furnish laboratory and illustrative material both for Davis and the department here. From the work already done the following conclusions have been reached by Professor Colt and his associates:

"In all naturally fertile varieties of orange trees, self-pollination is the rule and cross-pollination is unnecessary. The activity of insects is not needed for such varieties to set fruit.

"Viable pollen of parthenocarpic varieties is either entirely wanting or is very scarce. It is thus characteristic of parthenocarpic trees to bear fruit without pollination.

"It was required for complete fertilization after pollination varies with the variety from thirty hours to ten days and may be as long as four weeks in the trifoliate orange.

"The fertilization of the embryo-sacs sometimes takes place in the Washington Navel and Santa Rosa oranges. It was not before the formation of the megasporophylls, but usually not until afterwards. "Some normal embryo-sacs are produced in these and other varieties of Washington Navel and Santa Rosa oranges. Thus a few seeds may be produced, provided these particular fruits happen to be pollinated with viable pollen from fertile varieties. It is the reluctance of the chance of this occurring under ordinary field conditions that accounts for the seedlessness of these fruits.

"There appears to be nothing in the structure of the flowers of either the Washington Navel or the Santa Rosa oranges which would interfere in any way with the germination of pollen or normal extension of the pollen tube.

"Parthenocarpic citrus varieties are probably hybrids between naturally fertile varieties."

RAIN FAVORS WHEAT,
BUT HURTS CHERRIES

SACRAMENTO, May 7.—Howard G. Kerschival, county horticultural commissioner, gave his opinion yesterday on several branches of the fruit and vegetable market. That the rain damaged strawberries has been admitted, but a few days will see the shipments moving along as if there had been no setback. While the rain injured slightly the more sensitive fruits, the wheat, oats, hay and barley were considerably benefited by it.

ELABORATE PROGRAM FOR OUTING PLANNED

Many people from this side of the bay are planning to attend the annual outing and picnic of the County Leirism Social club of San Francisco which is to be held at Glen Park in that city, Sunday. Every year this organization holds an outing at the park, and each year its affairs have grown more successful. A bronco busting exhibition will be a feature of the picnic Sunday, when clever riders have promised to appear in a competition which has been arranged. The usual picnic games and races are on the program, and excellent prizes are to be awarded the winners in the several events. Gate prizes are also to be offered. It is expected that several thousand persons will attend the outing.

HINES WILL RECOVER.

WILLOWS, May 7.—Fred Hines, a young farmer who was severely injured Monday, regained consciousness and it is now believed that he will recover. Hines was building a barn and just had the frame work up. He placed a ladder against the structure and mounted it when the structure collapsed and he was pitched to the ground among the wreckage. He struck with his head on a stick of timber and it is feared that his skull is fractured.

Came to Her Rescue

From her home in Mountain Park, Oklahoma, Mrs. O. A. Strango writes to the Times laboratories:

"I am taking Fruitola and Traxo for gall-stones with good results. If it had not been that it came to my rescue I would have been dead I am sure. I cannot say too much for Fruitola and Traxo."

Fruitola possesses properties that act directly upon the intestinal parts. It is a great system cleanser, softening the congested waste and disintegrating the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, and quickly expels the accumulation to the intense relief of the patient. Traxo is a tonic alternative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion and removes bile from the general circulation. It serves to build up and strengthen the weakened, run-down system.

For the convenience of the public, arrangements have been made to supply Fruitola and Traxo through leading druggists. In Oakland they can be obtained at the stores of The Owl Drug Co.

NEW ZEALAND PREMIER CHEERED FOR WAR TALK

By Associated Press.
AUCKLAND, New Zealand, via London, May 7.—At a conference of Australasian premiers yesterday, Premier Massey of New Zealand was enthusiastically cheered when he declared in a speech referring to the casualties among the Australasian contingents with the British forces, "the determination is unanimous throughout the dominion to see the war through and obtain a victory at whatever cost."

WILL GIVE VAUDEVILLE.
A vaudeville entertainment to be known as "Ninety-Nine Minutes of Mirth and Music" will be given at the Myrtle-street Congregational church tonight. The program is under the auspices of the church's Christian Endeavor Society.

JAPAN MODIFIES DEMAND ON CHINA

The London Times Comments Semi-Favorably on Acts of Mikado's Counsellors.

are arranging ample protection for Chinese residents of Japan.

CHINA WILL YIELD.

PEKING, May 7.—There is good reason to believe that China is preparing to concede everything demanded by Japan, realizing that the situation is hopeless.

This possible outcome to the present tense situation is not generally comprehended in Peking, consequently a number of foreign residents, as well as Chinese themselves, are today packing their personal belongings and otherwise preparing for evacuation.

Japan's policy, says the Peking Gazette, is to exert the entire body of her demands while avoiding the outbreak of Europe and America for extractions from China through an ultimatum.

The presentation of the Japanese ultimatum to China is the culmination of the negotiations which have been going on since January and which have represented Japan's endeavor to compel China to accede to a series of demands numbering originally twenty-one and subsequently raised to twenty-four, which, if accepted by China, would have seriously increased the influence of Japan, politically, financially and industrially, in the affairs of the Chinese republic.

It is understood that this ultimatum expires at 5 p. m. of Sunday, May 9. At the same time there is reason to believe that China, realizing her situation to be hopeless, will be compelled to accede to Japan.

Recent dispatches from the Far East have conveyed the impression that the Chinese cabinet, in event of the presentation of an ultimatum, would yield to force.

The Chinese minister at Tokio has been informed by Japan of the probable presentation of this ultimatum and also of the fact that if the demands of Japan were not accepted before the expiration of the time limit Minister Hiroki would leave Peking.

U. S. CONSULTS POWERS.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The United States, within the last twenty-four hours, through its ambassadors abroad, has consulted Great Britain, France and Russia, the allies of Japan, to learn their attitude toward the present status of the Japanese-Chinese negotiations.

After a conference with President Wilson early today, Secretary Bryan said the President had received word that the ultimatum from Japan to China was "under discussion," but "that no notice had been received that the ultimatum had exactly been received in Peking."

After Secretary Bryan had been to the White House Ambassador Chinda called at the state department and the two men had another conference. At its close the ambassador reiterated that he could not discuss the subject, but added that a "full statement" would be made at the embassy soon.

Reports that Japan had altered some of the articles in group five of the so-called general set of demands relating to China as a whole, renewed hope here today that the negotiations would be concluded peacefully.

It is known that the efforts of the United States as well as the other powers interested in China have been directed toward the modification of group 5, which, on the Peking view, China has seemed to threaten the political and administrative independence of China.

Practically all the other Japanese demands relating to commercial rights and special privileges in Chinese localities, such as Eastern Mongolia, Southern Manchuria, Shantung and Fokien have practically been accepted by the Chinese plenipotentiaries.

There has been a confidence in some quarters, based on the advice from Peking, that President Yuan Shi Kai intends to accept finally the Japanese demands, but is anxious about the internal situation in China should he yield. It is believed he therefore desires to comply only after the presentation of an ultimatum.

President Wilson replied to inquiries concerning the Chinese-Japanese situation today by saying that the statement given out last night by Secretary Bryan represented all that the administration would have to say for the present.

DEMANDS MODIFIED.

TOKIO, May 7.—Baron Kato, Japanese foreign minister, is understood to have informed the ambassadors of other powers that the ultimatum to China, which expires at 5 p. m. today, was accompanied by additional modifications of the Japanese demands, notably the questions relating to munitions and advisers, which interested the United States.

The impression prevails that the influence of the elder statesmen resulted in further concessions being made to China, in the belief that the lasting interests of the empire could best be served by convincing the powers that Japan is guided by a spirit of justice and a desire for the preservation of peace in the Orient.

A dispatch to the Nichi-Nichi from its Peking correspondent says China last night informed Japanese Minister Hiroki that it desired to arrange a settlement of the demands in such a way as to avoid a rupture.

Eki Hiroki, the Japanese minister to China, went to the Chinese foreign office between 3 and 4 o'clock this afternoon and presented the Japanese ultimatum, which insists that China accede to the demands presented by the Tokyo government.

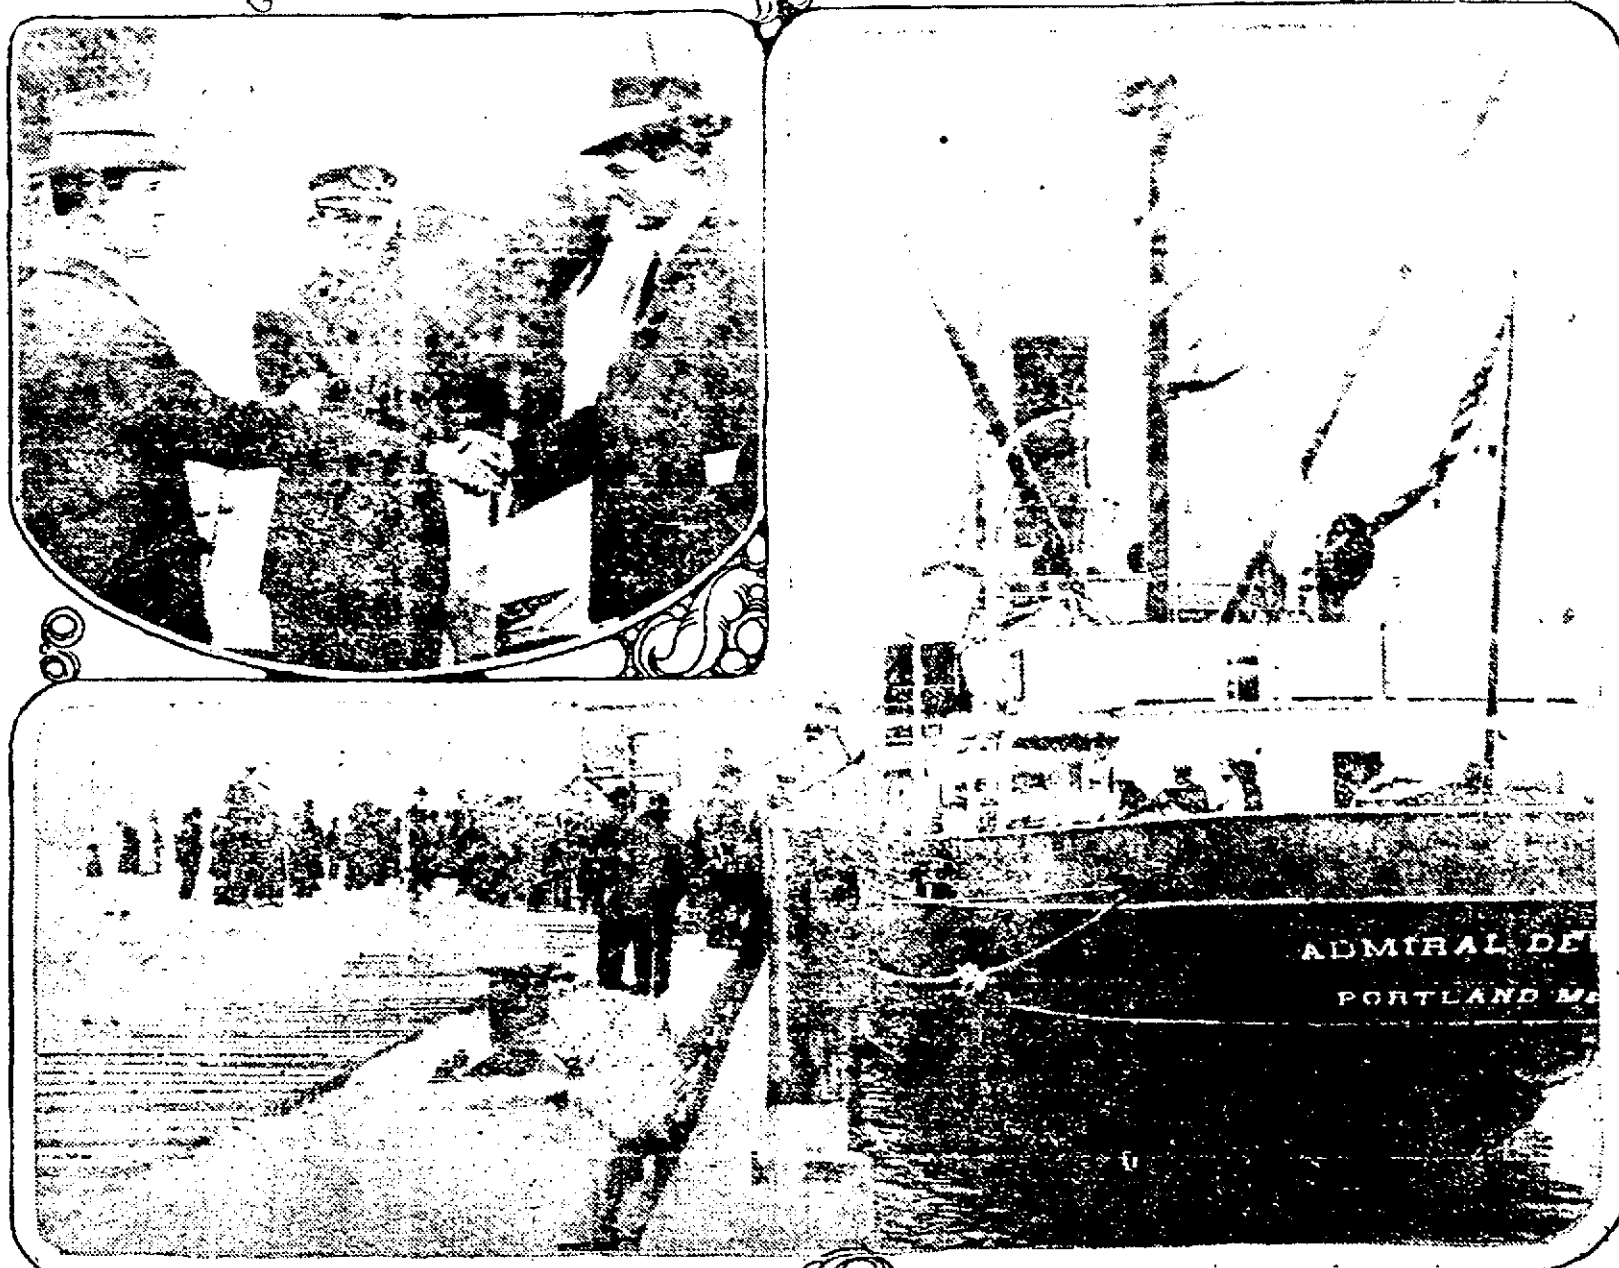

It was ascertained here today that the Japanese government yesterday presented to the Chinese minister at Tokio a note warning him that China must accept the demands of Japan, as otherwise there would be presented to her an ultimatum.

Previous to this action on the part of the minister the secretary of the legation visited the foreign office and informed Vice-Minister Tsoo Yulin that the ultimatum of the Japanese government contained certain modifications of the 24 demands presented by Tokyo.

TOWN TO BUILD PLANT.

LOYALTON (Sierra Co.), May 7.—At a meeting of the town council here last night, they took up the matter of the installation of a water-power electric light plant to take the place of the system that is soon to be discontinued. The electrical engineer of the state railroad commission is expected here soon to advise with the local officials as to the cost of the same. The manager of the company to keep the plant running until the new system can be installed.

BIG FREIGHTER ADMIRAL DEWEY, FIRST VESSEL TO DOCK AT OAKLAND'S ESTUARY QUAY WALL, AS IT APPEARED YESTERDAY WHEN IT BROUGHT ITS INITIAL CARGO INTO THE INNER HARBOR. (INSET) HARBOR MANAGER W. W. KEITH INTRODUCING COMMISSIONER H. S. ANDERSON TO CAPTAIN J. DANIELS OF THE DEWEY.

DEWEY MAKES SEA HISTORY FOR OAKLAND

Oakland became a world port yesterday afternoon, when the Admiral Dewey, one of the biggest steamers that has ever entered the inner harbor, docked at the just-completed quay wall, at the foot of Clay street, inaugurating the service of the city's first line of ocean-going vessels, and officially announcing to the maritime and commercial world that Oakland is from now on a port of call.

Cheers and enthusiasm greeted the big steel freighter as it steamed into the inner harbor, looming high and stark against the horizon. Captain J. Daniels, master of the vessel, stood on the bridge and waved his cap as he viewed the crowd that awaited the docking of the vessel and heard their cheers. With far less trouble than it would have taken to work the boat into a slip, the big craft drifted easily into a position along side the quay wall and was speedily made fast.

Three hundred city officials, business men, leaders in the community's commercial life, as well as representatives of all the big commercial and civic organizations of the city had left their businesses, that they might welcome the Admiral Dewey, and celebrate fittingly the event which they consider so portentous for the city. Before the big hawsers had been fastened to the stanchions on the quay, a gang-plank had been run from the main deck of the Admiral Dewey, and the eager crowd was clambering aboard.

Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson and Harbor Manager W. W. Keith, the two men who had so much to do with the upbuilding of the city's waterfront, were the first aboard the vessel. They shook the hand of Captain Daniels, welcoming him in port in the name of the municipality.

"Captain, do you realize that you are the commander of the first big vessel that has ever tied up to what will eventually be the busiest wharf on the Pacific Coast?" Anderson asked that official as he shook his hand. "I certainly do realize that," Mr. Anderson returned Captain Daniels, "and I assure you that I appreciate the honor. I've been many years on the sea, but I have never docked a ship at a better wharf than this."

GREETED BY BUSINESS MEN.

A general hand-shaking and round of introductions followed. Among those who greeted Captain Daniels were former Governor George C. Pardee, Managing Director Joseph E. Caine of the Chamber of Commerce-Commercial Club, Consolidated, of which John T. Scott is chairman and H. C. Capwell, vice-chairman. The other members are Commissioner Anderson, P. W. Bigler, John F. Connors, G. W. Hatch, O. E. Holte, Frederick Kahn, W. W. Keith, Joseph H. King, S. H. Killo, Joan H. Knox, V. O. Lawrence, O. F. Long, F. K. Mott, G. E. Waddell, Benjamin F. Woodner, Curtis Wright Jr., and H. A. Lafter.

IS STEADY CALLER. The Admiral Dewey is one of three vessels of the Pacific-Alaska Navigation Company which will make this port every three weeks, for Seattle and other Puget Sound ports, as well as Alaska. The other vessels are the Admiral Selby and the Admiral Burnett. They are sister ships, each of 1338 tonnage capacity, crews of sixty-two men and accommodations for 152 passengers. C. Hansen is the first officer of the Admiral Dewey; the second mate is S. Glass; purser, J. Russell, and William McDonald is the chief engineer.

The vessel entered port with a full cargo of flour for Oakland merchants. It is being discharged today at the Adams' wharves, in the warehouses of the V. O. Lawrence Company. After the reception at the quay wall yesterday, the vessel, with the entire company aboard, and Captain Daniels at the wheel, steamed out into midstream and proceeded to a berth at the Adams' wharves. As the big craft steamed through the drawbridges, Jones of the manufacturers' committee, called the attention of those on board to the time wasted in this procedure.

"This is the best argument I know of in favor of the removal of these two bridges and the construction of a bascule bridge, to accommodate the train, vehicle and pedestrian traffic," he said. "Many vessels will enter this part of the harbor the coming year. It has been shown through a careful study of the situation by County Surveyor P. A. Haviland that eleven hours a month is wasted by vessels in the use of the upper part of the inner harbor because of the existence of these bridges."

When the Admiral Dewey docked at the Adams' wharves, a pretty incident occurred. Six-year-old Peggy Preston, daughter of J. W. Preston of the Commercial Club, was aboard the vessel with her father. She walked sedately to Captain Daniels, pointing her finger at him in friendly greeting, and welcomed him to the city's port. The action brought a cheer from the crowd.

Charges Two With Conspiracy to Kill

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—George Constantinides is a barber and claims as an enemy James Makamoras of 2131 Eighteenth street. Thomas Everetras, an expert pistol shot, was hired by George, he says, to kill James for $100. He took James into his confidence and the latter proposed that he go to Oakland for two days, giving Thomas his bankbook and personal effects to show that he had been effectively put out of the way. George wanted a death certificate and is alleged to have paid Thomas only $20 cash and a promissory note. All three were before Judge Oppenheim for different kinds of warrants this morning, but the only ones issued were given to James against George and Thomas for conspiring to kill.

STUDENT HAS MISHAP.

Laurence Palmer, a student in the Technical high school, living at 1331 Seventh street, caught his left hand in a planing machine at the school this morning with the result that his left middle finger had to be amputated at the Emergency hospital by Dr. G. G. Reinle.

CITY OPENS FIGHT ON FREIGHT RATES

Mayer Mott Files Complaint With R. R. Commission on Discriminations.

The city administration is determined to secure for the shippers of Oakland a reasonable freight rate and to eliminate all discriminations now existing in favor of other communities was evidenced by a complaint filed with the National Commission today, signed by Mayor Mott.

The action has been expected and is in line with a resolution recently passed by the city council authorizing the city attorney to institute legal action to make it impossible for any other city to receive a lower rate than this city. The resolution also provides that favoritism against the city shippers is removed.

Atty. General Wheeler has arranged with Attorney H. H. Sanford, chief representative of the State Railroad Commission to cooperate with his office in presenting the matter to the commission.

The contention of the city officials is that Oakland is deprived of many of its natural geographical advantages by the discrimination of the railroads. Southern Pacific Company. A case involving the reasonableness of all of these rates is now before the National Commission and in this case the city has filed a bill of intercession asking that it be permitted to introduce evidence to show that shippers are discriminated against. The city claims that its investment of $150,000 in water front improvements will be jeopardized unless the railroads are forced to give equal treatment to shippers and manufacturers on this side of the bay.

NEW TICKET IN FIELD.

GRASS VALLEY, May 7.—An undercurrent of opposition in the form of a complete ticket for the municipal election to be held May 17, was brought to the surface yesterday, the last day for filing nomination petitions, surprised voters as there had been no indication of it. The new ticket is strongly opposed to the dictatorship of E. H. Armstrong, present district attorney, who has held the ship hand in politics of the city and county for four years. In one ward there are six contestants for a seat in city council.

BRIDGE CONTRACT GIVEN.

GRASS VALLEY, May 7.—With the awarding of the contract for the construction of the $40-foot concrete bridge over Bear river between Placer and Sutter counties, the blockade which prevented work on the mountain lateral to run from Roseville to this city by way of Auburn, has been removed.

VACATION THOUGHTS OCCUPY MANY MINDS

The Tribune to Take Care of Vacation Wants of All Who Desire Vacations.

The love of travel is one of the in-born instincts of the human race, and is evidenced early in life by the desire for toy wagons, trains and velocipedes, later by autos, yachts and private equipages which are as elaborate as circumstances will permit. Not only is mankind migratory by nature but the present stress of commercial and social life makes it almost imperative that one indulge in a trip for rest and recreation occasionally in order to prevent old age creeping prematurely in and causing furrows of care and gray streaks in the hair. The Tribune has planned to assist its friends in procuring trips to almost every point of interest on the vacation map, such as San Diego, Los Angeles, Mt. Lowe, Tamarac, Lake Tahoe, Lake Arrowhead, Yosemite Valley, Santa Cruz beaches, Catalina Islands, Grand Canyon, Yellowstone, Park, Alaska, Hawaii, Panama Canal, New York and a special grand vacation prize of an eight-cylinder Cadillac touring car.

These will all be without cost to the tourist but it would be presumptuous to state that they are free, for they are not, but the co-operation The Tribune will secure in making new friends and extending the already large list of its readers will more than recompense for the outlay.

Every reader of The Tribune may assist in making desirable friends to the mountains, to the beaches, to the islands and other points of interest by selecting some one of the many candidates and favoring them with a payment on subscription or may themselves go by entering the contest and securing the necessary "POINTS" to go to the points which they prefer. All who are interested are asked to send to the Contest Editor for full particulars. See Sunday Tribune for list of our 500 candidates.

How I Made My Hair Grow Long and Beautiful

I was greatly troubled with dandruff and falling hair. I tried many prescribed hair preparations and various remedies, but they all signally failed; many of them made my hair greasy so it was impossible to comb it or do it up properly. I think that many of the things I tried were positively injurious and from my own experience I cannot too strongly caution you against using preparations containing wool alcohol and other poisonous substances. I believe they injure the roots of the hair. After my long list of failures, I finally found a simple prescription which I can most confidently recommend to you. It is the most wonderful thing for the hair I have ever seen. Many of my friends have also used it, and obtained wonderful effects. They find it not only a powerful stimulant to the growth of the hair and for restoring gray hair to its natural color, but it is equally good for removing dandruff, giving the hair life and brilliancy, etc., and for the purpose of keeping the scalp in first-class condition. It also makes the hair easier to comb and arrange in nice form. I have a friend who used it two months, and during that time it has not only stopped the falling of her hair, and wonderfully increased its growth, but it practically restored all of her hair to its natural color. You can obtain the ingredients for making this wonderful preparation from almost any druggist. The prescription is as follows:

Bay Rum, 5 oz.; Menthol Crystals, 1/2 drachm; Lavone de Cologne, 2 oz.; If you like it perfumed, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. This, however, is not necessary. Apply night and morning; rub thoroughly into the scalp. Advertisement.

FRIDAY, MAY 7, 1915.

AS WEATHER-COCK TO THE WIND.

In March, 1897, when John L. Davie was a candidate for the mayoralty of Oakland, his campaign was based—as is this newest of his eight campaigns—upon unlimited promises of public advantage. He promised public improvements on a large scale—to beautify the city to furnish it with parks and boulevards, to improve its streets, to build wharves and encourage commerce, and to bring in competing railroads. He promised good times for everybody. He promised at no cost to the public to open the streets to the waterfront. He made unnumbered other promises suggestive of a millennium of prosperity and civic advancement.

What Mr. Davie did when, finally, he got into the mayor's chair, is matter of record. He kept faith at no single point. He did nothing in promotion of municipal progress or of the common welfare. He inaugurated no single municipal improvement. He encouraged no phase of business or commerce. On the contrary, his administration was marked by multiplied circumstances of retrogression in the civic life of Oakland. The story has already been told: there is no need of repeating it. It defines an era marked by a niggardly spirit, a do-nothing policy under which every public interest was neglected, no legitimate or wholesome interest advanced. It was a period in the history of Oakland—the only period—to which we must look back with shame.

What Mr. Davie promised to do and what he did not do, others have since done. Existing conditions more than answer the picture with which Mr. Davie charmed the public imagination in his campaigns of 1897. But the achievement was not at the hands of by the help of Mr. Davie. It has come through the foresight, the energy, the determination, the liberality of others. Now again, comes Mr. Davie seeking to foist himself upon Oakland, fighting to discredit those who have done the things he promised, but failed to do.

This same John L. Davie, who twenty years ago was promising the public all manner of civic improvements, is now proposing to nullify the very achievements, then the professed objects of his ambition. He would destroy what others have created, he would tear down what others have built. Now, as before, his campaign is waged not in the spirit of manly integrity, but solely in pursuance of his personal aims. He cares as little for Oakland as for his own character for truth and consistency. Twenty years ago he thought he could elevate himself by posing as the champion of progress. Today he thinks he sees his chance of personal advantage by becoming the champion of a retrograde policy.

A GREAT AND GOOD MAN.

The Hon. Elliot W. Major, Governor of Missouri, is all wool and a yard wide. He is a boomer from Boonville. He makes the Pacific Coast publicity man and his shouts seem pale, wraith-like, nebulous and anemic. In addition to a prodigious capacity for advertising and booming his state and its resources, he is blest with a sense of humor, which to most publicity shouters, is, in a personal sense, an unknown quality. Governor Major made a speech at the Exposition, in which he introduced Missouri to the attention of the world, and he had not been speaking two minutes, before his auditors were perfectly well aware of the paramount importance of Missouri and the insignificance of the rest of cosmos. He found the glory of his state pictured and reflected in the radiance of the aurora borealis, and drew its glowing and growing fame in a band of gleaming light reaching from pole to pole, circling the Equator and finally coming to a tremulous and brilliant rest somewhere about the apex of the resplendent Tower of Jewels. Governor Major knows a good thing when he sees it, and to him Missouri is superlative. It is the best, the greatest, the noblest of states, the container of all that is fine and desirable and well worth having or living for. His eulogy of Missouri and things Missourian ran from human nature and human hearts to fat chickens and pumpkin pie. Said he:

The log-cabin period was our happiest period. It was the time of old-fashioned hospitality, when Jones walked across the field to Brown's and sat up till bed-time and ate pumpkin pie.

But let me tell you of our commonwealth as it is today. We produce one-eighth of all the corn grown in the United States, three-fifths as much corn as all Europe and one-half as much as the entire world harvest of the United States.

Missouri's 300,000 farmers annually produce farm products, including live stock and poultry interests, valued at $150,000,000. For every farm product, whether from dairy, orchard, vineyard, poultry yard, field or feed lot, there is a market.

A voice from the rear of the hall called, "What about our chickens?"

"The finest in the world," replied Governor Major; "that is, our feathered chickens," and went on to elaborate:

The surplus poultry products in Missouri amount to more than $50,000,000 per annum. The Missouri hen lays enough eggs annually to give to each man, woman and child twenty-four eggs apiece, and if you haven't got yours you've been short changed. If each hen cackled when she laid an egg, and the hens were placed one hundred yards apart, then her cackle could be heard around the world 250 times. The surplus poultry product of Missouri exceeds the value of the great wheat crop of the State of Kansas, and exceeds the value of the cotton crop of Florida, Louisiana and Tennessee, and outstrips in value all the gold produced in Arizona, Colorado and California. If the annual lay of eggs was placed end touching end, it would belt the globe in two bands of white. Had the Missouri hen been placed in line and permitted to scratch in unison, or as one, then she could have dug the Panama canal before the Federal government had breakfast.

The speech was a thumping success. Governor Major is a thumping success; he palpitates with kindness and overflows with good humor. He had the good sense to say what he thought about his state and about conditions there. The people who heard him understood that they were listening to a sincere and earnest man—one of nature's boosters, as it were. We are glad Governor Major came to the Exposition. He is thrice welcome. He has injected a warm human note into a flood of dreary, perfunctory, machine-made Exposition oratory which has saddened and distressed all those who have had to listen to it, and which has exposed the mental and spiritual barrenness of some of those who had to give it forth. A long and happy life to his excellency, Elliot W. Major! He has brought smiles and sunshine and the joy of life to the ceremonial part of the Exposition.

THE LANDING OF THE "DEWEY."

There was a significant and interesting ceremony yesterday when the Admiral Dewey pulled up alongside the sea wall in Oakland harbor. It was an event marking the end of an era of delayed achievement and of frustrated hopes. In a quite definite way it marked the dawn of a new day of large promise in its relations to the development and character of this city.

We say the incident marks the "dawn" of a new day, because this word precisely fits the occasion and the condition. After years of agitation, of legal and other forms of conflict, of procedures inspired by civic ambition and sustained by liberal expenditure of public money, Oakland has, in a physical sense, prepared the way for an independent commercial life. Any ship which may enter the Golden Gate may now land at Oakland. The way is clear—clear in the sense that the channels are prepared and dockage facilities ready.

But, men and brethren, facilities for commerce are one thing. Commerce, itself, is quite another thing. The one may promote the other. They do not necessarily create it. Without human co-operation, without energy, without the enterprise which invites and promotes traffic, without the varied conditions which come from and through co-operation, our new facilities may stand idle until they rot and fall away. In addition to what has been accomplished in the way of making favorable conditions to commerce, something more—very much more—must now be done if the port of Oakland is to be what our dreams and hopes have pictured it.

As conditions stand today Oakland has indeed an open and available harbor front. The ships of commerce may come here with safety and convenience. But other conditions essential to the larger development of the port of Oakland remain to be established. Under traffic rates as they apply today there is no vital advantage to be gained here as against the other side of the bay. Perhaps instead of vital it would be more definite to say financial. For under the practices of traffic Oakland has no advantage in rates matching her physical advantages. Before the port of Oakland shall become what we want to see it, there must be readjustments which will give to Oakland the benefit of the difference in mileage between the two sides of the bay and of her situation on the landward side. In other words, there must be changes which will make freights from the Oakland waterfront to points in the interior lower than from the San Francisco waterfront to points in the interior. There must be a readjustment based on natural conditions as distinct from arranged conditions, devised in the interest of organized commerce on the western side of the bay and against the wish for commerce centering in and upon Oakland harbor.

Again, there must be developed here in Oakland not merely a detached, but an independent organization of business. It matters little in relation to the commercial future of Oakland if a few San Francisco commercial houses maintain branches here under orders to limit their operations to supplying the local trade. It would matter much for Oakland if she could find ways and means for creating here independent commercial houses, seeking business where they may find it, supplying it from their own warehouses, acknowledging no allegiance, accepting no limitations, asking no odds of San Francisco. Without such independent commercial houses we shall have no independent or large commercial life. Our new facilities will imply little or nothing in relation to the large ambitions and the large hopes founded upon them.

The first necessity is for differential freight rates as between Oakland and San Francisco. Oakland has the advantage of being on the landward side of the bay. Oakland has another concrete advantage in lesser mileage in relation to the interior. Oakland has—or should have—advantage in point of time and convenience. But these things will yield us nothing unless we shall match our natural facilities by artificial arrangements—specifically, by breaking down the arbitrary system under which San Francisco now contrives to nullify the inconveniences of her situation as compared with that of Oakland.

Men and brethren, the landing of the Admiral Dewey marks not the end, but the beginning. It proves only that Oakland has a new facility. There remains the serious business of so using this facility, of so readjusting long established conditions, as to make it serve the fortunes of this good city of Oakland.

This matter is not unrelated to the political contest now in progress. Which, let us ask, is more likely to serve the interests of Oakland, an official organization with its face to the rear, busy with small things, indifferent to large things, deficient in business judgment, inspired by village notions, or an official organization inspired by large ambitions, of proved competence in business, supported by the best energy and the largest resources of the city? In other words, will the irresponsible adventurer, John L. Davie, serve the interests of Oakland as wisely and as well as will the successful man of business, the man of definite and established responsibility, Frank W. Bilger?

Charley Shortridge gives a fine touch of dignity and sincerity to the Davie campaign. Now if only Emperor Norton were alive to grace the show the picture would be complete.

WILL CASE OPENS
DOOR TO SECRET

Nurse Gives Sensational Testimony in Contest at Oroville.

OROVILLE, May 7.—The fight of Vincent Walsh to obtain recognition as a grandson and to share in the $100,000 estate of L. C. Stone, was continued today and was replete with sensational Walsh himself was on the stand.

In star testimony, yesterday Mrs. Anne E. Kellomaki, a former nurse of Grady, but now a resident of Sacramento, said that she was summoned secretly to care for Mrs. Mary Walsh about two months after her marriage, that a son was born to Mrs. Walsh, and that she was sworn to secrecy by the mother of the child.

She was informed that the child was to be taken to Sacramento. A couple of years after, when Vincent Walsh was brought back, she was told to come and look at the child and was informed that he was her son.

Mrs. Margarette Westlake, a former employee of the Stone household, stated that while the family was spending a summer at Sisson, Mrs. Walsh arrived with Vincent. She had separated from her husband and the family took her to task for leaving her husband, whom they declared not to be worthy of a second thought.

Mrs. Walsh became hysterical, and cried aloud that she could not help but love Walsh, as he was the father of her child.

The witness also declared that she occupied the same room with Mrs. Walsh and that the latter was continuously grieving.

She stated that at one time Mrs. Walsh confided to her that her father had paid Walsh $15,000 to marry her and to thus give her a child's name.

Mrs. Westlake also testified that while at Sisson, Vincent became ill with convulsions and started having grand mal seizures. She stated that Mrs. Stone threw herself upon her knees and prayed that God would spare "Darling Grandson." The sisters also were praying for their nephew.

A special car which will accompany fifteen persons will be put at his disposal. The trip will be by the Northern route and the return by the southern route.

FEATHER FARM TROUBLES.
New styles in women's headgear, which have slighted the former popular ostrich and its fine plumes, is said to be behind the financial embarrassment of the Golden State Ostrich Farm in Fruitvale. Foreclosure proceedings started by E. Taylor resulted in Sheriff Barnett taking possession of the property today. Taylor held a mortgage on the farm as well as other creditors.

POLITICAL NOTES

The Chautauque Local Union No. 28 has sent to Frank W. Bliger notice of endorsement of his candidacy for mayor, passed by the union and assuring him of the full support of its members.

There is to be a barbecue at Recreation Park, Fruitvale, next Sunday, May 9, under the supervision of Charles E. Licklider.

A band of forty pieces will supply the music. There will be just one lot of barbecued beef, one-sixth of a ton of sausage and other edibles. The winners of the day will be Frank W. Bliger and A. Vander Nallen. A baseball match and several other features will be part of the entertainment, admission, to which will be free, including a seat at the banquet.

Justified the Peace William R. Geary, candidate for commissioner No. 1, spoke at the last meeting last night. John G. Elder, A. B. Connelly and other prominent speakers advocated Geary's election at other gatherings. Geary spoke at the home of William O'Neill, 5173 Trask street, at the Bungalow Club, at Klinkner Hall and at other neighborhood meetings. Many all-candidate for councilmen, aldermen and school board have been invited to speak at a meeting of the Plymouth Christian church last night. Dr. F. P. Jackson and W. H. Edwards, candidates for councilman, and Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Edwards, candidates for school board, were the speakers. Edwards was the speaker at a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Order of Railway Conductors.

Eight meetings were held last night in the interests of the candidacy of Bliger for mayor. John G. Elder, who for years has opposed the present city administration, was the principal speaker at the Alameda theater.

John G. Elder, member of the Socialist party, also spoke at this meeting. He said:

"I have joined my party a little less than two years ago and accepted all the conditions of membership. According to the rules of the party one must be a member for two years before he can become a candidate for office."

"I have announced myself, thereby breaking his pledge to the Socialist party. I am not a member. Yet this man has told you that he never joined the party. He has shown himself by this one statement to be unfit to serve you as mayor."

"There is no citizen of Oakland who has been more persistent in criticizing the present city administration than I have been. I fought some of their actions in the courts because I believed that the rights of the people were being denied. I give you this bit of personal history because I am going to deny tonight that Frank W. Bliger is the candidate of this audience."

At a meeting of the Bungalow Club E. Vander Nallen and Bliger were the speakers. Elder and J. F. Chandler spoke at a neighborhood meeting at the home of Charles O'Neill, 5173 Trask street. Other meetings were held at Klinkner Hall, under the auspices of the Golden Gate Social Club, the Maranatha school, the hall at Fifth and Brush streets. The speaker of the evening at the Fifth and Brush street meeting was W. J. Hennessy, deputy district attorney.

Enterprise Hall at Twenty-second and Grand streets will be the scene of a social gathering for the members and friends of the Irish-American League of Alameda county, who will assemble there this evening to hear the issues of the present campaign discussed by prominent citizens, who will speak from the viewpoint of taxpayers and property owners. The speaker of the evening will be the league, will preside. The executive committee having the affair in charge consists of the following: J. J. Kennedy, John E. Kelly, C. J. Twomey, James Corley and John J. Cox.

PAVLOWA COMING TO AUDITORIUM

Famous Russian Dancer Will Bring Gorgeous Ballet to Oakland.

To Pavlova, the incomparable Russian dancer, will bring the Labor of Love, the first big professional production of the new city's auditorium. A number of Oakland's leading business men and public spirited citizens have made possible the coming of the famous artist and Russian Imperial Ballet.

At a conference called by M. J. Layman, it was decided to ask the city to give to the Russian Imperial Ballet a place in the new auditorium. Anna Pavlova's dancing organization is considered to be not only the greatest of its kind, but also the most expensive.

Mrs. F. A. Gleses, who has been in Oakland, first made plans, he hoped for the support of the people for one performance only, but thanks to the encouragement of the progressive business and professional men of the city, there was also to be a matinee performance as well as evening.

Saturday, May 22, will be Pavlova day, and mammoth as the fine new Auditorium is, its utmost limits will, without doubt, be taxed to welcome her.

The following letter will explain why Mr. Gleses did not hesitate to sign with Pavlova's general representative, Shilsky Oshinsky today, for the wonderful little Russian's appearance:

CITIZENS' COMMENT.

"Mr. F. A. Gleses, Oakland, Cal. Dear Mr. Gleses:—We regard your proposal to procure the appearance of Mme. Pavlova at the Oakland Auditorium on May 22 as admirable, and worthy of the cordial and enthusiastic support of the city."

Your explanation of the very great expense and risk incurred in bringing Mme. Pavlova's organization to Oakland, in fact, is thoroughly understood and appreciated. We should be heartily in your belief that such risk should be rewarded by the unanimous support of every art lover, and by all those who have the great prestige which would attach to our city in the event of Pavlova's triumph at the Oakland Auditorium."

"We think it fitting and most fortunate, that the first professional stage event at the Auditorium should be that of Mme. Pavlova's appearance. We take pleasure in assuring you that the great prestige of your civic enterprise and public spirit in arranging for Pavlova's engagement at the civic auditorium and pledge to you our sincere and unqualified support in the matter. (Signed) M. J. Layman, J. J. Rosborough, F. M. Smith, M. C. Chapman, Harry P. Carlton, J. T. Edwards, Walter H. Elder, J. F. Chandler, H. C. Caswell, W. E. Manuel, J. E. Carlson, Joseph E. Caine, C. C. Barnhart, Irving H. Kahn."

POPULAR PRICES.

The immensity of the Auditorium will make it possible for an unusual concession on the part of Pavlova's management, in the way of allowing some seats to be sold for 50 cents, something never done before in the history of the city.

"This is the first time in our history as an organization, since leaving the Metropolitan Opera House," said Pavlova's representative, "that we have consented to make any seat for Pavlova less than $1. It will be remembered that when we played at the Liberty Hall, the last row in the gallery sold at $1 and hundreds were turned away then at that price. I yield to the expressed wishes of your business men in consenting to a popular scale of prices for Pavlova's engagement at the Auditorium."

The business men feel, as does Manager Gleses, that the important concession will make possible for the entire city to join in adding to the prestige of Oakland as an art center by making Pavlova's appearance here a greater artistic event of the year, being, as it were, the official christening of the mammoth theater of the people. The boxes will sell for $15, the first two rows on the floor will be at $2 and $1.50 and then some 1500 seats at $1. The first three rows in the balcony will sell for $1, the remainder at 75 and 50 cents.

The public school children will be invited to attend the matinee in a body, as Pavlova will at that time give her wonderful ballet, "The Fairy Doll," in which she will play the part of a little girl, which will delight the little folks by their marvelous dancing. This will be in addition, of course, to her program for the other nights.

Pavlova will be accompanied by her orchestra of sixty pieces. Her company includes nearly 200 people, the largest traveling organization on the road.

Mr. Gleses announces that mail orders for seats will be attended to at the McDonough theater, at once and filed in the order received. The regular ticket sale will open next Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at the McDonough theater, where a special box will be built for the sale of Pavlova's seats at the Auditorium.

Aviator's Presence of Mind Saves His Life

Presence of mind saved the life of Charles H. Patterson, 1505 California street, San Francisco, when he plunged to the ground in a new airplane in Alameda yesterday afternoon. He sustained no serious injuries and was able to get out of the machine and was taken to the hospital.

Patterson had just completed the construction of an airplane for R. G. Fowler, president of the Aero Club. He was flying it out and was about 50 feet in the air when he made too sudden a turn and commenced to plunge downward. He made frantic efforts to right the derelict craft but without avail.

As he was 15 feet from the ground, Patterson sprang into the stays of the airplane and when the craft hit the ground he received the benefit of its springy structure acting as a cushion for his body. He was able to extricate himself without the assistance of his friends, who had watched the trial flight.

CASUALTY LISTS SHOW
DECIMATION OF CANADIANS

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 7.—Casualty lists which continue to be issued from Ottawa of the Allied, wounded and missing among Canadians in last week's fighting around Ypres occupy columns daily in the Canadian newspapers. Of the 200 names published last night by the censor's office sixteen of the men belonged to the regiments sent from Vancouver. Every third or fourth man who went from this city has figured somewhere in the casualty lists and the loss of Vancouver officers has been appalling.

From the East End branch of the Royal Bank of Canada in this city six clerks volunteered for service and went to the front last year with the first Canadian contingent. Three of these have been killed, two are wounded and one is missing. Two of the killed were brothers, sons of Rev. William Elliott, a Christian minister on Vancouver Island.

ADMIRAL PRAISES BRAVE DIVER
Tribute to Hero of Submarine-Raising Off Hawaii

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Secretary Daniels has received a letter from Rear Admiral Moore, commanding the progress of salvage operations on the submarine P-4 between April 14 and April 17. Details of the report, which was dated Pearl Harbor, April 19, have been published in cable dispatches.

Of particular interest, however, is the report that the submarine would eventually be raised, but he said that accidently the work made it impossible to raise, who had been sent down but when the task could be accomplished.

SUED FOR
$100,000"Firefly" Actress Defendant in Action Charging Alieniation.Here's Emma Trentini's Oakland record: Brought the Macknough management to its knees (literally) in an effort to persuade her to leave the town of the North Oakland and "go on" for the opening performance of the "Firefly."Broke into the confines of the Commercial Club and thereby established a precedent that women were not barred from the quarters of that organization.
Challenged the Commercial Club billiard experts after receiving her first lesson in the gentle art of handling the cue, and had the satisfaction of getting no taken.And here's what Mrs. Friml says of Trentini:
Stole away her composer husband's love.Damaged Mrs. Friml's heart to the extent of $100,000.
Drove her from her happy home to Los Angeles.Who would pay $100,000 for a husband—another woman's husband?That's what Mrs. Rudolph Friml, wife of the noted comic opera composer wants dashing Emma Tren-tini, fair comic opera star to do—and she's suing for the money, along with another suit for divorce from her husband. The suit, filed in New York, created a sensation in Oakland and Los Angeles. Miss Trentini being well known here, while Mrs.
Friml has lived in the south for some time. The wife of the composer, who conducted the orchestra in his own work, while Miss Trentini starred in it, contends that Cupid perched himself somewhere between the music director's desk and the footlights, and the ardent glances exchanged between the handsome musician and the fair singer were too ardent. Therefore, she has filed a divorce suit naming Miss Trentini—and a suit claiming alienation of her husband's affections and demanding $100,000 therefor against Miss Trentini.Friml first came to this country six years ago, as accompanist to Jan Kubelik, the violinist. Later he took up light opera composition, turning out "The Firefly," "High Jinks" and other lively productions. He also wrote much of the music of "The Peasant Girl." Miss Trentini starred in two of the operas.It was in "The Firefly" that she last visited Oakland, when she created a sensation, refusing to appear when engaged at the city's Grand Pacific audience. She was staying at the Hotel Oakland and playing across the bay. The Macknough management, her San Francisco managers, and a score of press agents and other factors were literally camped out to kidnap her to get her across the bay to the theater. It was during her Oakland visit that she invaded the Commercial Club, declaring that women would be recognized, played billiards with Gilbert S. Farley and challenged any billiard expert in the club to compete with her. There were no takers, and she retired claiming the woman championship of the club.
Miss Trentini spent considerable time in Oakland, where she had many friends.Mrs. Friml is now in Los Angeles, where she has established a country home. She will probably go East when the case comes before court.Suffragists Give Up

DESERTED WITHIN TWO MONTHS

Former Widow of Fight Trainer Wants a Decree

Jesse I. Cook, once widow of the late "Bully" Delaney, trainer of world-champion boxers, who died in 1912, today commenced suit in the superior court for a divorce from her second husband, Charles J. Cook, whom she alleged deserted her within two months after their marriage.
Mrs. Cook asks the court to restore to her the name of her first husband, Delaney, the man who trained Jack Johnson for his fight with Jim Jeffries at Reno, in July, 1911.
Mrs. Delaney married Cook in San Jose, August 12, 1912, shortly after the death of her first husband. They established their home at 1721 Broadway, but their marital happiness was short-lived, for on October 26, accord-ing to Mrs. Cook's complaint, she was deserted.Mrs. Delaney was left a small estate by her husband. "Bully" Delaney was one of the best known trainers of famous boxing men in the history of the sport. He had a long career in the game, and the Jeffries-Johnson match at Reno was his last notable appearance.After fitting the colored man for the ring, Delaney became dissatisfied with him and openly declared that he hoped if he won the match another man would come along and divest him of the honors.This wish came true a short time ago at Havana, Cuba, when Jesse Willard knocked out Johnson in 26 rounds.Association Sues trained for an eleventh association formed by the members of Mount Zion Lodge No. 4, F. and A. M., against B. F.

Meadows, former secretary of the association.It is alleged that the defendant has refused to make an accounting of collections made by him in behalf of the association and that he has retained the lodge seal as well as title to a lot purchased by the association and held by him as trustee.City Toxicologist Examining StomachSAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—City Toxicologist Frank Green began a chemical analysis this morning of the contents of the stomach of James McLaughlin, the young engineer who was found dead after his life had been threatened, in a Minna street lodging house yesterday afternoon. Detective Sergeant Harry Cook is near him everywhere this morning for the mysterious stranger who accused Mc-Laughlin of stealing away his sweetheart and made threats against him.
McLaughlin came here from Vancouver and it was his attention to Miss Minnie Freiberg which led a young man to accushim and say: "Look out whose girl you are going with."Will of Dead Man

LOS ANGELES, May 7.—If the federal authorities will permit, F. V.
Walker, pursuer of the South Pacific liner Ventura, under arrest in San Francisco for alleged smuggling of jewels, will be brought here to testify whether he has seen or heard of a will left by Peter A. Garvie of this city. Garvie died aboard the Ventura, on the way from Sydney, Australia.
His estate is valued at $130,000 and relatives in Boston allege that a will disposing of his property has been suppressed.Dr. Henry Montgomery, surgeon of the Ventura, and James Gardy, cabin boy, testified that there was a will among the effects of Garvie handed over to Captain Colwell of the steamer, who died last January. These papers, it is alleged, were turned over to a Gardner, son-in-law of Mr.
Garvie.U. S. REPLY TO PROTEST

Impressed by the success of "The Ball of a Thousand Colors," the executive committee decided to promote this alternative to the traditional affair on the same date. Best Laxative for Children

When your baby is cross and fretful instead of the happy, laughing little daisy you are accustomed to, in all probability the digestion has become deranged and the bowels need attention. Give it a mild laxative, dispel the irritability and bring back the happy content of babyhood.

The very best laxative for children is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, because it contains no opiate or narcotic drug, is pleasant tasting and acts gently, but surely, without griping or other distress. Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 412 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

REFORMER MAGOON TURNS PERFORMER

Argument for Dave Cause of Riot Call for Police at Early Hour.

L. B. Magoon, reformer, real estate man, charter member of the Committee of "One Hundred," and ardent supporter of John L. Davis, was the cause of a riot call for the police at an early hour this morning when most of the world is in oblivion. That he was not arrested and given lodgings in the city hall, of which he has talked so scathingly, was probably due to the fact that the police say they were unable to find him from a rumor in which they found him in a hammock bath.

Hotel guests and other residents in the vicinity of the baths, which are at Ninth and Franklin streets, were aroused from their slumbers by the sound of muffled voices, and were disputing the merits and demerits of various candidates. The noise grew in volume as the argument grew in intensity and heat. Sleep was impossible. Someone telephoned the central station and Corporal R. O. Bergson detailed Corporal A. Smith and Patrolman Edward Frohn and Patrolman J. R. Leonhardt to investigate.

PAIR FOUND ASLEEP.

The three rushed to the scene in a police automobile. The noise had subsided and the argument stopped by Morpheus, who had intervened, both at Magoon and the Magoon and the other disputants. Colonel M. J. Ogden, who about to come to blows as a means of settling their dispute. The police found Magoon sprawling on a narrow cot in a typical hammock bath. He was very deep in sleep. Colonel Ogden slumbered blissfully and sonorously on the rubber table.

Nella Meyer, the bath clerk, explained that the two had engaged in a violent political argument and had only ended it with sleep. The police proceeded to Magoon's room.

"Here, wake up," Corporal Smith shouted, shaking Magoon's shoulder. He then recognized the patient.

"Well, I see you're not only a reformer, but you're a performer," Smith chuckled. Unable to arouse Magoon, the police left, and this morning submitted the following report to Chief of Police Petersen:

OFFICIAL REPORT.

"May 7, '15.

J. Petersen, Chief of Police. Sir: Under orders from Corporal R. O. Bergson, who received a report that there was a general disturbance at the Turkish hammam baths at Ninth and Franklin streets, Officers Frohn and Leonhardt and myself went to investigate. Upon arriving at the place we found all quiet, but found that L. B. Magoon, a real estate dealer, 3487 Seminary avenue, had been quarreling. We went to his room (9) and found him (Magoon) in a drunken stupor. We tried to arouse him, but found that he was too drunk to get an intelligent answer from him, so we came away and let him sleep.

"Colonel M. J. Ogden was lying on the rubber table with a strong odor of liquor on his breath. We did not arouse him.

"The clerk told me that it was only a drunken argument. I asked him if he got their liquor there, and he claimed that they did not.

"The clerk is Nella Meyer, 217 Tenth street, and the rubber is Von Edelkrantz, 759 Tenth street.

"(Signed.) A. B. SMITH.

"Corporal of Police.

Placed on probation for two years, during which he is not to touch liquor, William Gray, engineer of 1477 Thirty-second street, was allowed his freedom by Judge Mortimer Smith today. A charge of battery is hanging over his head, however, and should he smile on the cup anytime during his probation period he will be sent to the city jail for six months.

Gray was arrested on the complaint of his wife, Lillian, who showed two black and bruised eyes in police court. She begged that her husband be not sent to jail as that would deprive their three children of means of support.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

If you look at the calendar you'll find it's Moving Day—May 7. Wife says, "I move my move," and Hubby scowls the motion. As Hubby leaves for the office, Wife says, "Now don't forget the new address and be home early."

Look at the clock waiting to the office to save car fare. Read his thoughts. Oh, well! He's only been married a few months.

Gosh! Now what's the matter? Has he forgotten something? Sure, he's forgotten the address of his new address. Gee, that's cut! What'll he do?

Pipe the smile? Apparently everything is O. K. now. We guess he's thought of the number his wife gave him and told him to be sure to remember.

MADDUX BILL DEFEATED IN ASSEMBLY FIGHT

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, May 7.—A contest between the special teachers and the regular teachers of the public schools on a bill by Senator Maddux, was won by the latter last night in the Assembly when the bill failed of passage by a vote of 30 yeas to 37 nays. Notice of reconsideration was given.

The Maddux bill sought to repeal a law providing that regular teachers of the first grade shall receive as much salary as special teachers. It was introduced by Maddux to prevent a possible demand in his district of first grade teachers that they receive the same salaries as some of the special instructors.

The bill provided that the most keenly fought educational fight of the legislature. Stormy sessions in committee were followed by heated fights on the floor of the Senate in which the special teachers, defeated last night, were victorious.

Capitol Notes

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, May 7.—Governor Johnson today passed by the legislature granting Major Conlan, a former contractor of San Francisco, the right to bring suit for the recovery of money for street paving done in that city over 30 years ago. Conlan claims that there is $30,000 due him and because of a technicality he has been unable to bring action against the city of San Francisco for its payment.

The Governor's objection to the bill is that its application would be general and work a hardship on other cities of the State.

Governor Johnson, Lieutenant Governor John M. Eshleman and members of the Assembly were the guests last night at a banquet given by Speaker C. C. Young. Commendation was bestowed by the Governor upon the members of the lower house for their work during the legislative session.

Spite fences are illegal under an Assembly bill passed by the Senate. It declares that "any fence or structure in the nature of a fence, maliciously erected or maintained for the purpose of annoying the owner or occupants of adjoining property shall be deemed a nuisance."

The Assembly judiciary committee unanimously decided to lay on the table Senator Flaherty's bill permitting San Francisco to acquire its cemeteries by condemnation for public parks. It had already passed the Senate. The committee is said to have agreed not to permit the bill to be signed out of committee.

ANTI-USURY BILL IS DEFEATED IN SENATE

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, May 7.—The Senate defeated a bill passed by the Assembly limiting the rate of interest on loans to 10 per cent a year. It was called an "anti-usury bill," and was said to be directed at "loan sharks." Only seven Senators supported it.

"This bill is an enemy," said Senator Wolfe. "I have seen it pop up at almost every legislative session. I am not in sympathy with 'loan sharks,' but I would not like to see business stifled by such a measure as this. It would put out of business all remedial loan associations and pawnbrokers."

Senator Cohn supported Wolfe, but Senator Cogswell said the bill allowed a generous rate of interest and he "would be glad if he could get ten per cent on his property."

Fair Weather Forecast Willson's Prediction

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—United States Weather Forecaster G. M. Willson for the first time in two weeks, said the word "fair" in his predictions this morning. He had almost forgotten how to pronounce the four letters, but he said that he believed that not only will conditions be fair but we are to have a spell of sunshine long delayed and long hoped for. The clouds are with us today, but they are expected to disappear tonight leaving clear skies on the morrow.

There has been no rain in the state, but the gloomy heavens have not been confined to the bay cities. The usually sunny south has had a taste of the clouds and is just as tired of them as we are. There has been no rain in California for the past twenty-four hours.

ITALIAN CONCERT BAND FOR BIG AUDITORIUM

Oakland must have shown their appreciation of musical events that have so far been featured in the beautiful Oakland Municipal Auditorium. The patronage of the old Senate concert was so successful that it has been arranged to have an effort on the part of Manager Buckley to book additional first class concert attractions.

Yesterday he secured, through Elliston-White, concert agents, one of the best attractions of the season. Ciriello and his Italian concert band, now making a tour of the West, will be brought here from Portland, Oregon, for May 16 and 17.

Supplementing this attraction will be a rendition of the great opera "Il Trovatore." This will be a continued concert featuring the principal numbers of that opera. The Ciriello band transformed into an orchestra, will accompany the singers. One half of the program will be given over to the regular concert band lasting about an hour and the remaining half to the operatic program. Proper stage settings, the Anvil Chorus and many other special features will be put on by Ciriello.

FILM PLAYS STIRS RACE STRIFE, PROTEST SAYS

The following protest against "The Clansman" has been received by The Tribune:

"We, the undersigned, desire to voice a public protest against the production of 'The Clansman' in the city of Oakland. We base our protest on the following grounds:

"1. The play is an excitement to the very crimes it pictures.

"2. It incites to race law.

"3. Through the subtle power of dramatic 'story' appeal, it stimulates race hatred and its consequent injuries.

"4. It is a reflection on the attitude of the white toward the colored people.

"5. It exposes to humiliation and hatred a body of our fellow citizens who are helpless peaceably to resist the injustice.

"6. To children, young people and to those weak in understanding and self-control, that is, to all who are the especial care of an enlightened community, this play is a particular menace.

"7. It is antagonistic to the world movement in favor of peace, whose strength lies in the constructive work of promoting understanding between different races and nations.

"We therefore protest against a city administration entirely in the hands of white people countenancing this vicious play, which has no moral and educational value and is merely of commercial profit to a few private individuals.

BLASTING TROUBLE ENDS IN PEACE

Rock Ridge Section to Enjoy Safety Result of Work by Police.

With the police department as moderator peace has been declared between Marsh brothers, contractors, and residents of Rockridge and other sections near Third Broadway, who were annoyed and frightened by blasting operations which have been carried on for several months. Residents have frequently complained to the authorities that their lives and property were endangered from the blasts which were calculated to be of such intensity as to shake their homes and break chimneys.

Captain Lynch of the northern division took the matter up with Fred Marsh, the contractor, and with R. Weeks, resident of the section affected, and as a result of the conference residents in the vicinity will be notified when a blast is to be set off.

Marsh said that as most of the heavy rock had been loosened there will be no occasion for the heavy charges of powder used. Lynch has instructed Patrolman Day to keep a close watch on the situation.

WOMAN GIVES $20,000 ALIMONY FOR DIVORCE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Reconsidering the ruling of three weeks ago, Judge Trout yesterday restored the record of an interlocutory decree granted to Mrs. Grace Gregory, wife of Edward H. Leacock Gregory, an insurance broker and clubman, granting Mrs. Gregory a dual decree of divorce.

Judge Trout denied Mrs. Gregory's petition to restore the record three weeks ago, holding that she had waited too long, the interlocutory decree having been granted in October, 1914, and further because she and her husband had lived together several times since then as husband and wife.

Since that time Mrs. Gregory's attorneys have had many conferences with her husband's attorneys with the result that she agreed to waive more than $20,000 alimony which she would have been entitled to had the decree been restored, as it provided for $150 a month. Her husband then withdrew his opposition to the restoration of the record.

Mrs. Gregory received a substantial sum in settlement of all her claims against her husband for support.

Stomach Sufferers Should Avoid Pepsin

Eminent stomach specialists like Riegel have proven that there is not one case in twenty which needs pepsin or an artificial digestant. The trouble is not a lack of digestive juices, but too much acid in the stomach.

Neutralize the excess acid in your stomach, give the digestive juices a chance to act thus avoiding poisonous gases and toxic products which often cause biliousness, internal disorders, nervousness, headaches, general weakness, etc., and you will be all right. Never take large quantities of soda or acids to relieve the stomach in the worst cases in from one to five minutes.

Bisurated Magnesia will neutralize about four times as much acid as soda and is very soothing and healing to the delicate, inflamed membranes of both the stomach and intestines. It usually gives relief in the worst cases in from one to five minutes.

Bisurated Magnesia is prepared in both powder and tablet forms and all leading druggists can supply you. It will give complete relief in any case of stomach acidity or your money will be refunded.

FERNSIDE BOULEVARD IMPROVEMENT PLANNED

ALAMEDA, May 7.—Arrangements have been completed for the improvement of the south end of Fernside boulevard. Councilman William Hammond Jr., chairman of the street committee of the city, has been conducting the negotiations for this work, and agreements have been reached between the Southern Pacific Company and J. This improvement has been anticipated for several years. WOMAN WOULD NOT GIVE UP Though Sick and Suffering; At Last Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa.—"When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a dreadfully rundown state of health, had internal troubles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache.

"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was not so bad. I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued to use it until it made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. FRANK CLARK, 3146 N. Talip St., Richmond, Pa.

Women Have Been Telling Women for forty years how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored their health when suffering with female ills. This accounts for the enormous demand for it from coast to coast. If you are troubled with any ailment peculiar to women why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It will pay you to do so. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

ALAMEDA MAYOR MAKES BOND PLEA

Urges Residents to Pass Issue of $300,000 at Election Tuesday.

ALAMEDA, May 7.—Mayor F. H. Bartlett has issued an appeal to the residents of Alameda to pass the school bond issue of $300,000 at the election next Tuesday, May 11. His statement is as follows: "I take advantage of this opportunity to urge the voters of Alameda to stand by the school and vote the school bonds. The money asked for is badly needed. A school building is badly needed. The school department will be badly crippled, that the children of Alameda will suffer in consequence, and that the people of Alameda will acquire the reputation of neglecting one of their most important duties.

"The city of Alameda is growing. Its educational needs are growing. These needs must be supplied, and to supply them the citizens must vote money.

"The demands of the board of education are most moderate. They are the demands of a school that is to be a school of the future. I am satisfied that no voter who should make a personal examination of the conditions need have any doubt as to the necessity of the school. At first hand would come to a conclusion different from that held by the board of education and myself, namely, that every item asked for is a necessity.

"This is an occasion when an important vote is being cast. It is a vote that will recognize this duty and assume it cheerfully by voting for the school bonds. Mayor of Alameda."

BERKELEY, May 7.—If time permits, there will be shown to the city council this evening a complete new housing code designed to bring about changes of considerable importance in the regulations governing structures. DEAN HUNT IN FAVOR OF TUBERCULIN TESTS

BERKELEY, May 7.—Proposed State action to enforce the tuberculosis test of cattle is being urged by Dean H. Hunt of the University of California. A resolution which has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Cogswell, a friend of the movement at the legislature, the dean points out the dangers of a less rigorous policy. Dr. Hunt writes as follows: "The statement I made to you upon your recent visit to the university farm was that I was in favor of the tuberculosis test of cattle. I am now in favor of the tuberculosis test of cattle. I am now in favor of the tuberculosis test of cattle.

"I further stated that, as a state-wide policy, the method of compulsory tuberculosis testing and the slaughter of domestic animals has been successful, in my opinion, in any state or nation.

"May I add that I believe all friends of pure milk should support Senate bill 10, which provides for the tuberculosis test of cattle. I am now in favor of the tuberculosis test of cattle. I am now in favor of the tuberculosis test of cattle.

CIRCUS IS COMING; HURROO, HURROO!

"Buffalo Bill" Big Attraction With Sells-Floto Aggregation.

And now that the subject is well
West.

But the subject wasn't Wild West. It wasn't anything. But that didn't make any difference. This is a story of the coming of the features of the Sells-Floto circus and Buffalo Bill's Original Wild West, and it is coming here as a big opening feature of the new civic auditorium, and it might as well start that way as any other.
Now that the subject is well West, there enters the subject also of the men and women of Colonel William Fredrick Cody (Buffalo Bill) will crank with him when he comes to town with the circus.

For Buffalo Bill, scout of many years ago, did some more scouting last winter.
into the Bad Lands of South Dakota he went, far up into the Big Horn basin and past his ranch at Cody, then out to the western ranges of Wyoming. When he returned to Denver he brought with him the most recent of his scouting travels, and he had secured a circus canvas. For Colonel Cody had sought out the men and women he knew to be the best, he had sought out the most picturesque Indians possible, he had secured the most famous riders, the champion ropers and the most daring cowboys, and then had secured the most famous season at least, to live the life of the circus.

And so it is that when the Sells-Floto and Buffalo Bill circus comes here, there will come also Hugh Clark, Jim Forest, Frank Boden, Mary Walters, "Red" Kelley and many other representatives of the rangers who can do anything from roping four horses at a gallop to tying knots in a bar. As for riding the "quackers," there will be men with the Sells-Floto Circus this year who will turn handprings on their backs and then grin and ask for something hard to do.
Of course the Wild West features are to be included in the regular performance of the show, under the supervision of Colonel Cody. They will be in the parade, which is to come at 10:30 o'clock circus morning, and which will be led by Buffalo Bill himself.

The circus will come here May 10, 11, 12. It will be the first time that a circus has exhibited in a civic building west of Chicago.

There are two children already under training for "Buffalo Bill's" gymnastics—read about them in Sunday's great edition of The Tribune.

The world has known what Cottolene is for over a quarter of a century

Cottolene established a class of its own over a generation ago.
Cottolene was in the front rank of the great movement for bettering household service and for improving food products.
Its manufacture and its constituents are as well known as the simplest things done in every kitchen.

Cottolene

The cottonseed oil in Cottolene is pressed from selected seed—it is a grade so choice that it is not listed on the market. It is purer, sweeter and better in value than most salad oils. The beef stearine is the product of the finest beef suet known.

It is the exact combination of these two fats which gave Cottolene its high place over a quarter of a century ago, and which has held this place for it.

Cottolene is economical, but better than that it actually improves the quality and flavor of all foods cooked with it.

Your grocer has Cottolene now

Tell your grocer you want a pail now; arrange with him for your regular weekly supply. Write to our General Offices, Chicago, for

HEINRICH SCHMIDT AND McLAUGHLIN IN FINALS TODAY

Claremont Golfer Star Plays a Great Game. Beating W. Sherwood.

In every round of his play at the golf course of the Claremont Country Club, Heinrich Schmidt seemed to add to the excellence of his game. On Wednesday he registered a 7 for the eighth time and yesterday he was in the end of the score for a win over Walter Sherwood. Starting the match at one o'clock, Schmidt completed the round with the score 3 up and 4 to go.

As a result of his victory yesterday, Schmidt will meet M. A. McLaughlin in the final round of the match today. The two have played each other in the past and Schmidt has won the last time.

Schmidt played the kind of golf yesterday which brought him victory over Clark Evans of Chicago in the amateur championship at Eugene, Ore. His ability to hole long putts from impossible positions, which was so successfully demonstrated yesterday, was his driving was of excellent order.

On the third hole, after being four, Schmidt took a 10. He was hit from the tee placed him six or eight feet from the edge of the green, from which position it would have been impossible to hole out. Schmidt played a beautiful putt and sank the ball into the cup for a two.

At the finish of the first eighteen, Schmidt led by one up, with a medal score of 35. On the return, he proceeded immediately to increase this lead and put a sure margin to his credit by winning the first four holes going in. A half on the nineteenth, Schmidt was leading, although the players finished the course for the medal count.

McLaughlin, in defeating Sanderson, played consistent but not sensational golf and only won by a scant margin, 1 up. McLaughlin's medal score for the eighteen was 37 while that of his opponent was only two strokes worse.

The finals today will be played over the full 36 holes. Schmidt, who has won the full 36 hole match, is favored for the match, but the Los Angeles representative may surprise the critics. He has won most of his matches in the past season, and the handicap of one hole on each round which he receives from Schmidt may be sufficient to turn the balance in his favor.

The summaries follow: First flight handicap—Heinrich Schmidt defeated M. A. McLaughlin, 3 and 1. M. A. McLaughlin defeated E. Sanderson, 1 up.

Defeated eight of first flight handicap—S. D. Johnson defeated E. Sanderson, 3 and 1. Walter Wood won defeat from C. E. May.

Second flight handicap—L. L. Merrill defeated C. E. May, 3 and 1. Knox Macdonald defeated M. E. Eyr, 3 and 2.

Defeated eight of second flight handicap—D. M. Carey defeated J. M. O'Keefe, 1 and 3. W. Carey defeated J. M. O'Keefe, 1 and 3.

Third flight handicap—W. B. Ireland defeated W. B. Ireland, 3 and 1. Ireland defeated F. C. Phelps on the nineteenth.

Third flight handicap—J. M. O'Keefe defeated J. M. O'Keefe, 3 and 1. G. Weatherwax, 1 and 2.

ROWLAND MAY GET JOBS FOR MORE BUSH PILOTS

Success for Clarence Rowland, now bush league manager of the Chicago White Sox, probably will make a major league berth for Jack Hendricks, manager of the Indianapolis American association club. Hendricks is one of the most successful bush league managers in the country, having won four pennants and leading in the first division on six other occasions.

Big league club owners are looking longingly at Jack, but have been afraid to take a chance on him because of the badger made by the minor league who have been put in charge of big league teams.

There is a strong belief that White Sox is going to get the White Sox. If he does, Hendricks won't have to stay in the minors unless he wants to.

BASEBALL TEAM IS A HELP TO CITY

DES MOINES, Ia., May 7.—The Des Moines baseball club of the Western League will receive a good deal of support from the business community this summer. The team carries a large banner along with it wherever it is on the road. The banner will be from the front of the hotel in each city on the circuit that the team stops at.

If the hotel management won't fly the flag, the team will stop somewhere they will. The banner is blue on one side and in white letters are the following words: "The Des Moines baseball team is a help to the city."

On the reverse side is "City of Certainties."

BUNNY'S REAL NAME DIDN'T FIT THE BOX SCORE

Answering a question regarding the nationality of Bunny Brief of the White Sox recently, it was stated he was a French-Canadian. A fan from his home town makes the correction that this story is furnished of how he comes by the name of Brief.

Bunny's right name, according to a friend from his home town, Traverse City, is Tony Gresham. He was born as it can be spelled in the American lingo. The "Brief" story is rather interesting. When one of Bunny's brothers went to work in a Traverse City factory a few years ago he sprang the Greek word "Brieff" on an unsuspecting employer. "The name," he commented, "Too much," and turning to the timekeeper, said, "make it brief." And it has been Brief since that day. All the youngsters in the family fell into line and adopted the new moniker.

Brief is known as Chi by many of his friends at Traverse City. As a kid he used to say that some day he would play ball for Chicago when he grew up. Hence that nickname.

"The Athletics are not a smashed machine," said Connie Mack before the opening game yesterday, "but a sure-fire pennant contender."

"It is my positive belief that the Athletics will be in the race to the finish and that they are perfectly competent to win a third straight American league championship. The only way my calculations might be upset would be for some rival to lead a fat lead right at the start and hog things for the whole season."

"But I am not looking for any such thing to happen and with three or four other clubs battling for the pennant our chance is as good as anybody else's."

"I know that out of town critics place us out of the running because of the sale of Collins, the retirement of Baker and the demoralization of Frank and Bender, but they have underestimated our strength. They don't figure on our reserve power, which will be put in service this year."

"Then again it must not be overlooked that I have a wonderful successor to Collins in Lajoie. I don't hesitate to say that there is no second baseman in either league who is the equal of Lajoie. With the one exception of Collins, Eddie has the shade on the veteran and will lead the rest of the keystone guardians lashed to the mast. His record this year will bear me out."

"After where a New York critic said that Larry Dugan was the bases because he didn't spring down to first in ten seconds after hitting a foul ball, I think I am old and conserves his energies when he can, but when the occasion to run arises, I don't think there will be much more doubt about this point."

"Two rattling young reserve outfielders in Lloyd Davis and Shag Thompson, that the critics haven't figured on, this boy team is getting better every day, and Davis is another corner."

"I insist that I have a better pitching staff than any other team in the league. I have five young fellows who will deliver, and they will go nine innings, too. Do you know that I haven't worried one bit about how my pitching is going to turn out? I don't know a pitcher that he will do, then I don't know a pitcher from a cantaloupe. That's pretty sure, but I mean it."

"Just watch our step this year. I and Connie said all this before Pennock shutout the Red Sox with a scratch single."

Echoes From Those Wednesday Night Battles

JOE ARCY AND KID NABISCO TWO TINY TOTS FURNISHED THE FANS WITH MUCH JOY

LUSHER AND DAVIS FOUGHT A DRAW

SEVERAL STARS APPEARED IN THE PRELIMINARIES FIELDS AND EDWARDS WERE A COUPLE

'The Sporting Editor' Says:

Says He, About As Follows:

"If this weather keeps up much longer, at least two clubs in the Coast League will be broke," was the statement made several days ago by one of the Coast League magnates.

There is nothing in the world that will make the fans lose interest in a pennant race quicker, or that will make more money out of the magnates' pockets, than a series of postponements. The Coast League has been generally sultry and disagreeable since the start of the season, but during the past three weeks the attendance has steadily fallen, until now there is not enough money coming in to pay expenses.

Not only for the present are the magnates concerned, for a couple of weeks of bad weather would not be so much of a calamity, but they are looking out for the remainder of the season. The season is now closing in, and the weather is yet in the running. At present there is not a club in the Coast League that is not a pennant contender, but the owners of the Coast League recognize that if the fans get out of the habit of coming to the games, the league will be in a race, it is all up with the magnates. Last year a bad climate at Long Beach kept the show for the San Francisco team, and even when the Seals were on top in the fall, with the weather good, they were defeated by the old-timers who were turning out.

At present the coast, and especially the bay cities, are in the midst of one of the most terrible streaks of bad weather experienced in years, and the attendance at the games has gradually diminished. The magnates never figure to make money on week days, but Sunday is the day when the fans come out, and the whole show will be crashed.

WITH THE EX-COASTERS. Tommy Quinlan has been benched in favor of Happy Fuchs, the former Milwaukee slugger, and the latter batted out two hits and scored two runs yesterday. Jack Fournier batted out two safe drives, also.

Manager Rowlands is making all kinds of moves in an effort to bolster the Sox lineup. He is paying Jack Fournier, a first baseman, in exchange for one of the latter's hit-men, and has placed Bobby Barr, an outfielder on that base. Roth and Fournier are both playing wonderful.

Tommy Barr caught for the Sox yesterday and batted out three hits and scored two runs. The Sox hit too hard in the pinch and defeated the Bostonians, 6 to 1, in the tenth inning. Fuchs, who failed to show up, was called eight times for errors.

For the Phillies, Kuller and Cravath, both former Coasters in bygone days, are hot.

WHITEHOPE, FOOD KENTUCKY DERBY FOR JOKESMITHS, WILL DRAW RECORD CROWD TOMORROW ARE NO LONGER

Since Defeat of Johnson All Have Become Challengers.

(By THE TIMEKEEPER.) White hopes are no more. The term coined soon after the defeat of Jeffries at Reno is no longer needed and promises to soon become obsolete. What the great champion had hoped dropped up they attracted a great deal of attention, but after a time, when middleweights and has-beens among experienced fighters were administering regular beatings to the so-called white hopes, the term came to be somewhat of a joke. After five years of abuse it is now to be dropped, at least for the present.

White hopes are no longer known by the outside term, but have become "challengers" for the title. During Jack Johnson's regime boxing followers had little sympathy to waste on the various buildings. The demand for Johnson's elimination was so great that each candidate for titular honors was quickly turned away after his first defeat.

Thereafter he was made the butt of jokes, who never stopped to think that it takes years of practice to turn out a perfect fighting machine. However, in the future there will be no reason for showing impatience with the training of fighters, from whom the next champion is to come.

So far there is but one fighter who has proven himself worthy of the challenger's title. He is a young fellow named C. J. Cooney, who has been making a great deal of noise since he was beaten by Carl Morris last night. He is a good puncher and shows a great deal of natural ability. Of course, it is not claimed that he is a coming Fitzsimmons or a Corbett, but he should give a fair fight to a world beater in the twenty-two pound division.

The next thing in favor of Cooney is his size. He weighs about an even 210, which in the twenty-two pound division is a good weight for a champion. He is not too big to be fast, nor too small to go up against the larger ones. Jess is champion, but he will look like a real cheese when some of these smaller fellows take him over the spirit rope. Jess is too slow for the spirit rope, and he is too slow for the spirit rope.

It was a world beater in the twenty-two pound division. The old marathon is about the only distance at which he merits his present title. Cooney is a good puncher and shows a great deal of natural ability. Of course, it is not claimed that he is a coming Fitzsimmons or a Corbett, but he should give a fair fight to a world beater in the twenty-two pound division.

MINING STOCK MARKET HIT BY DECISION PANICKY BREAK

Merger Suit in Seattle Has a Disastrous Effect on the Favorite Stocks.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The decision in the merger suit in Seattle, where the Pacific Northwest Electric & Light Co. is being merged with the Puget Sound Electric Co., has had a disastrous effect on mining stocks today. Jumbo Extension dropped to $11.35, Merger to $21, and both at $2. As usual in such cases, the market was immediately affected by what may be termed by some as an adverse judgment. Several brokers here, however, have an opinion that the decision should not have affected the market and that now was a good time to buy with prices low.
